This non-financial Agreement provides for cooperation between the Sheriff/Coroner/Public Administrator Department, through its Inmate Services Unit (ISU), and the California Baptist University (CBU). ISU is required by Title 15 CCR to provide adult education programming to inmates housed in all four Type II County detention facilities. Under the terms of the recommended Agreement, the Department will provide students currently enrolled in the Master of Social Work (MSW) Program at CBU with supervision, training, and field experience in education programs including trauma recovery and family relations, health and nutrition, marriage, family support services, and social work provided to clients (inmates) at the County's detention facilities.
