6. Confidentiality.

6.1. Definition. Each Party agrees that the business, technical, financial and other information, including without limitation, all software, Source Code, inventions, algorithms, techniques, methodologies, schematics, know-how, analyses, trade secrets, technical data, strategic planning, marketing data, databases, drawings, models, performance information and ideas and the terms and conditions of this Agreement, that is either designated in writing as confidential, or by the nature of the circumstances a reasonable person would treat as confidential, shall be the confidential property of the disclosing party and its licensors (“Confidential Information”). Confidential Information does not include information that (a) is previously rightfully known to the receiving party without restriction on disclosure, (b) is or becomes known to the general public, through no act or omission on the part of the receiving party, (c) is disclosed to the receiving party by a third party without breach of any separate nondisclosure obligation, or (d) is independently developed by the receiving party without use of or reference to the Confidential Information of the disclosing party.

- 6.2. Confidentiality Obligations. Each Party agrees to protect the Confidential Information of the other Party in the same manner that it protects the confidentiality of its own proprietary and confidential information of like kind, but in no event using less than a reasonable standard of care. A party shall not: (a) disclose or use any Confidential Information of the other Party for any purpose outside the scope of this Agreement, except with the disclosing party's prior written permission, or (b) disclose or make the other party's Confidential Information available to any party, except those of its Affiliates, employees, contractors, and agents that have signed or accepted an agreement containing disclosure and use provisions substantially similar to those set forth herein and have a "need to know" in order to carry out the purpose of this Agreement. If a party is compelled by law to disclose Confidential Information of the other party, it shall provide prior notice of such compelled disclosure (to the extent legally permitted) and reasonable assistance, at the other party's cost, if the other party wishes to contest the disclosure. Due to the unique nature of the parties' Confidential Information disclosed hereunder, there can be no adequate remedy at law for a party's breach of its obligations hereunder, and any such breach may result in irreparable harm to the non-breaching party. Therefore, upon any such breach or threat thereof, the party alleging breach shall be entitled to seek injunctive and other appropriate equitable relief in addition to any other remedies available to it.

You will be solely responsible for all costs and expenses (including our costs and expenses) related to the exercise of your rights in this Section 7.3.
- 7.4. Restrictions. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Agreement, we shall not be required to provide (a) physical or network access to our security systems, (b) documentation to provide evidence of compliance other than applicable attestations of compliance, (c) our costs of providing the F5 Services, (d) any results of security vulnerability assessments; (e) any information to the extent that providing such information is a violation by us of applicable laws or regulations; confidentiality obligations to our customers; or security certifications; or if such disclosure would hinder law enforcement's investigation into a security event or any trade secret of F5.

The indemnified party will have the right to participate in the defense with counsel of its own choosing at its expense; provided that such representation does not interfere with indemnifying party's right to control the defense.

4. Policies Primary and Non-Contributory. All policies required herein are to be primary and non-contributory with any insurance or self-insurance programs carried or administered by the Customer.
5. Severability of Interests. F5 agrees to ensure that coverage provided to meet these requirements is applicable separately to each insured and there will be no cross liability exclusions that preclude coverage for suits between F5 and the Customer or between the Customer and any other insured or additional insured under the policy.
6. Proof of Coverage. F5 shall furnish Certificates of Insurance to the Customer's Department administering the Agreement evidencing the insurance coverage at the time the Agreement is executed, additional endorsements, as required shall be provided prior to the commencement of performance of services hereunder, and F5 shall maintain such insurance from the time F5 commences performance of services hereunder until the completion of such services.
7. Acceptability of Insurance Carrier. Unless otherwise approved by Risk Management, insurance shall be written by insurers authorized to do business in the state in which F5 is providing the applicable services and with a minimum "Best" Insurance Guide rating of "A- VII".
8. Intentionally Omitted.
9. Failure to Procure Coverage. In the event that any policy of insurance required under this Agreement does not comply with the requirements, is not procured, or is canceled and not replaced, the Customer has the right but not the obligation or duty to cancel the Agreement.
10. Insurance Review. Insurance requirements are subject to periodic review by the Customer. The Director of Risk Management or designee is authorized, but not required, to reduce, waive or suspend any insurance requirements whenever Risk Management determines that any of the required insurance is not available, is unreasonably priced, or is not needed to protect the interests of the Customer. In addition, if the Department of Risk Management determines that heretofore unreasonably priced or unavailable types of insurance coverage or coverage limits become reasonably priced or available, the Director of Risk Management or designee is authorized, but not required, to change the above insurance requirements to require additional types of insurance coverage or higher coverage limits, provided that any such change is reasonable in light of past claims against the Customer, inflation, or any other item reasonably related to the Customer's risk. Any change requiring additional types of insurance coverage or higher coverage limits must be made by amendment to this Agreement. Any failure, actual or alleged, on the part of the Customer to monitor or enforce compliance with any of the insurance and indemnification requirements will not be deemed as a waiver of any rights on the part of the Customer.
