BACKGROUND INFORMATION

On October 8, 2025, the Board of Directors of the Chino Valley Independent Fire District (CVIFD) adopted Ordinance No. 2025-02. This ordinance adopts by reference and amends the 2025 Edition of the California Fire Code with errata, and the 2024 International Fire Code and the 2024 International Wildland-Urban Interface Code “regulating and safeguarding of life and property from fire and explosion hazards, hazardous materials and from conditions hazardous to life or property in the occupancy of buildings and premises; providing for the issuance of permits and collection of fees....”.

On November 20, 2025, the Board of Directors of the Rancho Cucamonga Fire Protection District (RCFPD) adopted Ordinance No. FD-060 and FD-061. These ordinances adopt the 2025 California Wildland-Urban Interface Code and the 2025 Edition of the California Fire Code, respectively, with errata, together with certain changes, modifications, amendments, additions, deletions, and exceptions; providing for the issuance of permits and collection of fees...”.

On November 17, 2025, the Board of Directors of the Apple Valley Fire Protection District (AVFPD) adopted Ordinance No. 67. This ordinance adopts by reference the 2025 Edition of the California Fire Code with errata, and the 2024 International Fire Code “prescribing regulations governing conditions hazardous to life and property from fire or explosion, providing for the issuance of permits for hazardous uses or operations and establishing a division of fire prevention and providing officers therefore and defining their powers and duties...”.

Approval of this item will ratify AVFPD Ordinance No. 67, CVIFD Ordinance No. 2025-02, and RCFPD Ordinance No. FD-060 and FD-061 pursuant to Section 50020 of the California Government Code and Section 13869.7 of the California Health and Safety Code. Under these codes, a self-governed fire protection district shall submit its adopted and approved local fire code ordinance, including its amendments to the California Fire Code and International Fire Code, to the county in which it will apply for ratification by the Board of Supervisors. San Bernardino County (County) may ratify, modify, or deny the ordinance. If ratified, the County is required to file a copy of the findings of the fire protection district, and any findings of the County, together with the adopted ordinance with the California Department of Housing and Community Development.

The County’s Land Use Services Department and the San Bernardino County Fire Protection District have reviewed the above-described ordinances and have no comments or concerns.

Each ordinance will only apply to the unincorporated region of the County that falls within that governing fire protection district. Enforcement of the ordinances identified in Recommendation Nos. 1 through 3 will be by the chief of the fire protection district that adopted the ordinance, or the fire chief’s authorized representative, pursuant to Health and Safety Code section 13869.7(h)(1)(A).

Health and Safety Code section 13869.7(c) requires the transmittal of this item to each of the fire districts identified in Recommendation Nos. 1 through 3, as well as filing the item and ordinances with the California Department of Housing and Community Development.
