All disbursements shall be made by your check. The expression "close of escrow" means the date on which the deeds conveying the PROPERTY to BUYER are recorded. Close of escrow shall be on or before 90 days from the date of BUYER signature hereof. All adjustments are to be made on the basis of a thirty-day month. Recordation of any instruments delivered through this escrow, if necessary or proper in the issuance of a policy of title insurance called for, is hereby authorized. You are to furnish a copy of these instructions, amendments thereto, closing statements and/or documents deposited in this escrow to the lenders, real estate broker(s) and/or the attorney(s) involved in this transaction upon request of such lenders, brokers, or attorneys. Should you before or after close of escrow receive or become aware of any conflicting demands or claims with respect to this escrow or the rights of the parties hereto, or any money or property deposited herein or affected hereby, you shall have the right to discontinue any and all further acts on your part until each conflict is resolved to your satisfaction, and you shall have the further right to commence or defend any action or proceedings for the determination of such conflict. The parties hereto jointly and severally agree to pay all costs, damages, judgments and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, suffered or incurred by you in connection with, or arising out of this escrow, including but without limiting the generality of the foregoing, a suit in interpleader brought by you. In the event you file a suit in interpleader, you shall ipso facto be fully released and discharged from all obligations imposed on you in this escrow.

Time is declared to be the essence of these instructions. If you are unable to comply with the time specified herein and such additional time is required to make examination of the official records, you will return all documents, money, or property to the party entitled thereto upon satisfactory written demand and authorization. Any amendment of and/or supplement to any instructions must be in writing. These escrow instructions and amendments hereto may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which independently shall have the same effect as if it were the original, and all of which taken together shall constitute one and the same instruction.

In the event BUYER, SELLER, and/or assigns, utilize "Facsimile" transmitted instructions or electronic copies of instructions (scanned images, etc.), Escrow Holder is instructed to rely and act upon such instruction in the same manner as if original signed instructions were in the possession of Escrow Holder and BUYER and/or SELLER herein agree to forward signed hard copies of instructions within 48 hours of transmission. Escrow Holder shall have no liability to any party for relying upon facsimile or electronic instructions which were erroneously transmitted to Escrow Holder. BUYER and SELLER agree that when necessary to permit compliance with closing instruction, Escrow Holder may rely on facsimile- or electronically-transmitted demands. BUYER and SELLER further acknowledge and agree that documents necessary for recording with non-original (facsimile or electronic) print and/or signatures will not be accepted for recording by the County Recorder, thus delaying the close of escrow.

Parties to this transaction are aware and understand that as a result of the passage of the Tax Reform Act of 1986 which added Section 6045(e) to the Internal Revenue Code, the SELLER in this transaction is to deposit, prior to close of escrow, certain information including all sellers' names and tax identification numbers, and that the closing of this transaction will be delayed in the event escrow has not received same from SELLER prior to close of escrow. Escrow holder is not to be held accountable or liable for the sufficiency or correctness as to form, manner of execution, or validity of any instrument deposited in this escrow, nor as to the identity, authority or rights of any person executing the same. Escrow holder's duties hereunder shall be limited to the proper handling of such money and the proper safekeeping of such instruments, or other documents received by escrow holder, and for the disposition of same in accordance with the written instructions accepted by escrow holder.
