Section 8.      Processing of Entitlements

(a) SELLER covenants and agrees that SELLER will reasonably cooperate with BUYER in connection with the processing, by the Buyer Parties, of the Entitlements deemed necessary by BUYER for the development of the Property during Escrow. SELLER acknowledges that such cooperation shall include whatever actions may be reasonably necessary or helpful to enable the Buyer Parties to file for and process its entitlements. Such entitlements to be processed by the Buyer Parties may include, without limitation, the processing of an amendment to the general plan covering the Property, a zone change, a tentative subdivision map, a final subdivision map, an environmental impact report, associated development permits and related permits, including, without limitation, site plan approval and a building permit, agreements and approvals requested from the City of Chino or any other governmental agency having jurisdiction over the Property, all of the above in such a manner as BUYER may determine to be necessary or helpful to facilitate development of the Property as an economically viable project in accordance with the Proposed Development Plans, including any and all required Seller approvals of the final plans and specifications for implementing the Proposed Development Plans (if required) under the Comprehensive Land Use Plan – Chino Airport dated November, 1991, as amended (all of which being collectively referred to as the "Entitlements"). Such cooperation of SELLER shall include facilitating efforts of the Buyer Parties to enter into development agreements, investigate public financing and formation of special improvement districts, execution, as may be requested by the City of Chino or any other governmental agency having jurisdiction over the Property, of applications, permits or approvals required for the submittal of the Entitlements and, if applicable, executing the final map, if requested by BUYER, and providing the Buyer Parties access to the Property to perform any investigations or tests necessary for the processing of such Entitlements as contemplated in Section 6, above. The parties acknowledge that the intent of this provision is that SELLER will cooperate with BUYER and participate in such meetings if the City of Chino or other governmental agencies require the owner of the Property to be in attendance at such meetings. To the extent such attendance is required, BUYER will use reasonable efforts to ensure that (i) SELLER receives reasonable advance notice of any such meetings; and (ii) any such meetings are scheduled at a time which is reasonably acceptable to SELLER. Upon submittal of any such applications, permits, deeds or maps to SELLER, SELLER shall, no later than seven (7) days after delivery of such documents, execute such documents as necessary and return the same BUYER.

(b) BUYER shall in good faith diligently make all reasonable efforts to obtain all Entitlements on or before October 17, 2019 (the "Entitlement Period").

(c) If BUYER is not otherwise in default or in breach of this Agreement, and if BUYER should fail to obtain such Entitlements within the Entitlement Period for any reason or if such Entitlements are issued but are not Final by the end of such Entitlement Period, BUYER, at its option, may terminate this Agreement, cancel Escrow and receive a full refund of its Deposit together with any accrued interest thereon.

(d) SELLER and BUYER understand that full environmental review under CEQA and/or other state, federal, and local environmental laws must be completed as part of the City of Chino's evaluation of whether to approve the development of the Property. SELLER and BUYER understand and agree that nothing set forth herein commits or otherwise requires the City to approve, in whole or in part, the development of the Property and that this Agreement does not govern federal, state, or other local agency approvals required for the development of the Property.

(e) SELLER and BUYER acknowledge and agree that City of Chino retains full discretionary authority with respect to the development of the Property, and may condition, deny, or approve the development of the Property or any portion thereof.

(f) SELLER shall not enter into any agreement that will allow for the development of the Property until there has been appropriate compliance with CEQA. The City of Chino retains the absolute discretion to: (i) modify the proposed development of the Property to mitigate significant adverse impacts; (ii) select feasible alternatives that avoid significant adverse impacts of the proposed development; (iii) reject the development of the Property as proposed if the economic and social benefits of the development do not outweigh otherwise unavoidable significant adverse impacts of the proposed development; or (iv) approve the proposed development upon a finding that the economic, social, or other benefits of the proposed development outweigh unavoidable significant adverse impacts of the proposed development.

SECTION 5. All other provisions of the Agreement shall remain in full force and effect.

SECTION 6. This Second Amendment may be executed in counterparts, each of which shall constitute an original and all of which, when taken together, shall constitute the same document.
