The Company represents and warrants that it has the authority to grant the rights to the Product hereunder and (i) that to Company's knowledge, its granting of the right to use the Product (except to the extent it includes data supplied by Customer) does not infringe on any copyright owned by a third party, (ii) that to Company's knowledge, the ownership of Company's copyrights is not in dispute, and (iii) that Company has no knowledge of any potential dispute(s) surrounding Company copyrights under this Agreement.

Company also represents and warrants that it is not and at no time has been convicted of any criminal offense related to health care nor has been debarred, excluded, or otherwise ineligible for participation in any federal or state government health care program, including Medicare and Medicaid. Further, Company represents and warrants that no proceedings or investigations are currently pending or to Company's knowledge threatened by any federal or state agency seeking to exclude Company from such programs or to sanction Company for any violation of any rule or regulation of such programs

Company will use commercially reasonable efforts to make the Product available for access by Customer and Named Users 99% of the time, measured on a monthly basis, excluding any Planned Outages. "Planned Outages" means the installation of upgrades, routine application, server, or network configuration changes, and other reasonable maintenance activities. Planned Outages will be conducted outside of normal business hours, and Company will provide Customer notice of any Planned Outages at least 24 hours in advance of any Planned Outage.

Company warrants that it will use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that its Product will be free from errors and defects under normal use during the term of the Agreement. During the term, Company shall, at its own expense, use commercially reasonable efforts to repair any errors and defects in its Product of which Customer notifies Company to the reasonable satisfaction of Customer to operable condition.

Company represents and warrants that it has all necessary licenses, permits and/or certifications required by Federal, State, County, and municipal laws, ordinances, rules and regulations. Company shall maintain these licenses, permits and/or certifications in effect for the duration of this Agreement. Company will notify Customer immediately of loss or suspension of any such licenses, permits and/or certifications. Failure to maintain a required license, permit and/or certification may result in immediate termination of this Agreement.

8. Confidential Information

8.1 Customer and Company may from time to time disclose to the other party confidential information relating to its business and affairs ("Confidential Information"). Except as otherwise required by law, neither party will disclose Confidential Information of the other to any third party without the express written consent of the other party, nor disclose or make use of any Confidential Information other than in the performance of this Agreement. Each party shall use at least the same degree of care to avoid disclosure of Confidential Information as it uses with respect to its own Confidential Information and will procure from any third party to whom confidential information may be disclosed an agreement containing provisions substantially similar to those set out in this Section, except as to those disclosures which are required to be made under California or federal law. Either party may seek injunctive relief to enforce its rights under this Section. Company understands that the Customer is a public entity subject to, among other laws, decisions, rules and statutes, the Ralph M. Brown Act, the California Public Records Act, and the Sunshine Ordinance in its County Code and Company consents to disclosure of information and writings, including but not limited to this Agreement and any subsequent amendments, to the extent required by applicable law. The foregoing obligations will survive the termination or expiry of this Agreement.

8.2 Confidential Information is that information or know-how identified as being confidential, or, given the circumstances surrounding disclosure, should in good faith be treated as confidential. Confidential Information does not include information: (a) generally available to or known to the public, (b) previously known to the recipient, (c) independently developed by the recipient outside the scope of this Agreement, (d) lawfully disclosed by a third party, or (e) disclosed during testimony before any judicial or quasi-judicial court or tribunal.

9. Indemnification. Company shall indemnify, defend (with counsel reasonably approved by Customer), and hold Customer, its employees, and agents harmless from and against any and all claims, losses, damages, liabilities, or costs (including attorneys' fees) incurred by Customer resulting from any third-party claim, suit, action, or proceeding ("Third-Party Claim") alleging that the Product or Customer's use of the Product infringes or misappropriates such third party's intellectual property rights, including such third party's patents, trademark, copyrights, or trade secrets (collectively, "Intellectual Property Rights"), except to the extent that such claim arises from (a) Customer's unauthorized use of the Product or data or (b) data supplied by Customer; or (c) the combination, operation, or use of the Product with other products not provided by Company. Customer will give Company sole control of the defense (with counsel reasonably acceptable to Customer) and settlement of such claim; provided that Company may not settle the claim or suit absent the written consent of Customer unless such settlement (a) includes a release of all claims pending against Customer, (b) contains no admission of liability or wrongdoing by Customer, and (c) imposes no obligations upon Customer other than an obligation to stop using the Product or services that are the subject of the claim. In the event that Company fails to or elects not to defend Customer against any claim for which Customer is entitled to indemnity by Company, then Company shall reimburse Customer for all reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses within thirty (30) days from date of invoice or debit memo from Customer. After thirty (30) days of Company's receipt of notice of such fees and expenses from Customer, to the extent such fees and expenses are not disputed by Company and remain unpaid by Company, Customer will be entitled to deduct any unpaid invoice or debit memo amount from any amounts owed by Customer to Company. This shall not apply to any judgment or settlement amount, and Customer, at its sole discretion, may settle the claim or suit.

If, in Company's opinion, the Product becomes, or is likely to become, the subject of a claim of infringement of Intellectual Property Rights, Company may, at its option: (i) procure for Customer the right to continue using the Product; (ii) replace or modify the Product to be non-infringing, without incurring a material diminution in performance or function; or (iii) if neither of the foregoing is feasible, in the reasonable judgment of Company, Customer shall cease use of the Product upon written notice from Company, and Company shall provide Customer with a pro-rata refund of the unearned fees paid by Customer to Company for the Product.

10. Proprietary Rights. Customer acknowledges and agrees that all proprietary rights in the Product are and shall remain the sole property of Company and its third-party licensors. Customer acknowledges that the Product and all copies thereof were compiled, prepared, selected and arranged by Company and its licensors through the expenditure of substantial time, effort and money and that they constitute valuable property of Company and its licensors. Company retains full rights to the application, licensing, and data, which may not be published or distributed in any form without the express written consent of Company.

11. Assignment. This Agreement or any rights herein may not be assigned by either party without the written consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld. Company reserves the right to change the subscription fees upon assignment by Customer or in the event Customer is involved in any merger, acquisition or similar event, provided assignee shall have the right to decline the change and immediately terminate the Agreement. Company further reserves the right to terminate this Agreement in the event assignee is a competitor of the Company. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, this Agreement does not allow Product to be used by any third party whom, after the date of this Agreement, is acquired by, merged with, or becomes otherwise affiliated with Customer without the express written consent of Company. For the avoidance of doubt, the Customer may only utilize the Product for their benefit and may not use the Product for the benefit of any parent, subsidiary or affiliate entities unless otherwise agreed between Customer and Company in writing. The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties, their successors and permitted assigns.

12. This Agreement shall be governed by the laws of the State of California without regard to the conflict of laws provisions thereof which would require the application of laws of a jurisdiction of other than such state. In the event a dispute arises in connection with this Agreement, the San Bernardino County Superior Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction and the parties hereby irrevocably submit to the jurisdiction of the court.

13. Non-Disparagement. Neither party will make any false, misleading or disparaging statements regarding the other party or their technology or services, or their capabilities, features, functions or performance, including without limitation in or in the course of any sales, marketing, publicity, and other activities under this Agreement.

14. Waiver. No waiver by any party of any breach of this Agreement or failure of any party to take action to enforce or assert any right or remedy hereunder shall be deemed a waiver of any prior, concurrent or subsequent breach. No waiver shall be effective unless it is made in writing.

15. Severability. If at any time a provision of this Agreement or portion thereof is found to be invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, it shall be omitted from the Agreement without invalidating or rendering unenforceable the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Agreement.

16. Signatures. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts, each of which so executed shall be deemed to be an original, and such counterparts shall together constitute one and the same Agreement. The parties shall be entitled to sign and transmit an electronic signature of this Agreement (whether by facsimile, PDF or other email transmission), which signature shall be binding on the party whose name is contained therein. Each party providing an electronic signature agrees to promptly execute and deliver to the other party an original signed Agreement upon request.

17. Binding Agreement and Notices. All parties acknowledge that they have read this Agreement and agree to be bound by its terms and conditions. The parties also agree that this Agreement is the complete and exclusive statement of agreement between the parties and supersedes all proposals or prior agreements, oral or written, and any other communications between the parties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement. Each party acknowledges that it is not entering into the Agreement on the basis of any representations not expressly contained herein. No amendments to this Agreement shall be enforceable unless in writing and signed by Company and Customer. Notices required pursuant to this Agreement shall be hand delivered (including via overnight courier) or sent via registered or certified mail. Notice shall be deemed effective upon delivery if hand delivered or if sent by registered or certified mail, then notice shall be deemed effective two business days after deposit.

18. Attorney's Fees. If any legal action is instituted to enforce any party's rights hereunder, each party shall bear its own costs and attorney fees, regardless of who is the prevailing party. This paragraph shall not apply to those costs and attorney fees directly arising from a third-party legal action against a party hereto and payable based on an indemnification obligation.

19. Licenses, Permits, and/or Certifications. Company shall ensure that it has all necessary licenses, permits and/or certifications required by Federal, State, County, and municipal laws, ordinances, rules and regulations. The Company shall maintain these licenses, permits and/or certifications in effect for the duration of this Agreement. Company will notify Customer immediately of loss or suspension of any such licenses, permits and/or certifications. Failure to maintain a required license, permit and/or certification may result in immediate termination of this Agreement.

20. Insurance. During the term of this Agreement, Company shall maintain in full force and effect, at its own expense, the following insurance coverages: (a) commercial general liability of $1M per occurrence, $2M in the aggregate; (b) workers compensation, including employer's liability, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations; and (c) cyber liability of $5M per claim and aggregate. Third Party Flow-Down Terms

Customer acknowledges and agrees that Company has entered into a Data Agreement with a third party ("Third Party"), pursuant to which the Third Party provides certain de-identified data as Third Party Data to Company. Company, in turn, includes certain Third Party Data in the Company Products subscribed by Company to Customer.

The following Flow-Down Terms are conditions of accessing the Third Party Data derived data and information included in the Products. By executing the Agreement, Customer agrees to be bound by these Flow-Down Terms.

As between Customer and Company, Customer agrees as follows:

1. Third Party (and its licensors, providers and suppliers, where applicable) owns and shall retain all intellectual property rights in and to the Third Party Data.
2. Customer shall not sublicense, transfer, redistribute or otherwise make available Company Products (and any Third Party Data or Product data therein) to a third party except (a) as expressly authorized by the Agreement (including these Flow-Down Terms) and (b) pursuant to a written agreement with the third party that includes these required Flow-Down Terms.
3. Customer shall, and shall ensure that Customer's Named Users, only use Third Party Data or Product data for Customer's internal business purposes authorized by the Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, Customer shall not use Third Party Data or Product data to (a) identify and/or select sites, practitioners, patients or other individuals for participation in clinical trials; (b) assess or benchmark quality, cost-effectiveness or value of care delivered or reimbursed by a pharmacy, other healthcare provider, PBM or other payer entity; and (c) identify or profile patients, consumers or other individuals.
4. Customer shall not, and shall ensure that Customer's Named Users do not, reveal the source of Third Party Data or Product data, whether such source is known or not.
5. Customer shall comply with the limits, qualifications, conditions, restrictions and other requirements of any certification, opinion or other form of determination ("Certification") that Third Party Data or Product data is statistically de-identified in accordance with the HIPAA de-identification standards at 45 CFR § 164.514(b), provided that such requirements are provided to Customer.
6. Customer shall not, and shall not permit any employee, agent, contractor or third party to: (a) identify, re-identify or attempt to identify or re-identify any individual who is the subject of any Third Party Data or Product data or any relative(s), family or household member(s) of such individual; (b) identify, re-identify or attempt to identify or re-identify any individual who is the subject of any data within any Third Party Data or Product data or any relative(s), family or household member(s) of such individual; (c) link any of Customer's or third-party data to any Third Party Data or Product data unless permitted by the applicable Certification and the Agreement.
7. Customer shall (a) implement, use and enforce reasonable and appropriate technical, physical and administrative safeguards to (i) ensure the confidentiality of the Third Party Data or Product data, (ii) assure that the Third Party Data or Product data is accessed only by Customer's Named Users under the Agreement (or employees who are authorized users of a permitted third party under Section 2 of these Flow-Down Terms), (iii) assure that the Third Party Data or Product data remains de-identified in accordance with 45 CFR § 164.514(b) and (iv) prevent any access to or use or disclosure of any Third Party Data or Product data except as permitted under the Agreement; (b) maintain an audit log of any individual who or entity which accesses any raw claims data from the Third Party Data or Product data; (c) monitor any server storing any raw claims data from Third Party Data or Product data for intrusion, hacking or any other form of access not permitted under the Agreement; and (d) appoint and maintain an executive contact, officer, or sponsor responsible for ensuring that the Third Party Data or Product data are maintained, transmitted, used and disclosed in accordance with this Agreement, HIPAA and other applicable Law.
8. Customer shall report to Company any unauthorized actual or attempted access, re-identification or re-identification attempt of any Third Party Data or Product data discovered by Customer within three (3) business days of Customer's discovery.
9. Customer shall remedy (in accordance with Third Party's reasonable direction) any unauthorized access, re-identification or re-identification attempt of any Third Party Data or Product data.
10. Neither Third Party nor its licensors and providers make any representations or warranties directly to Customer with regard to the Third Party Data. Any warranties regarding the Third Party Data and the data therein are made by Third Party to Company. Accordingly, Customer agrees that Third Party shall have no liability to Customer in connection with the Third Party Data, Products, any data therein or the Agreement. Without limiting the foregoing, Third Party shall not be responsible to Customer for personal injury or death that may occur as a result of Customer's use of the Third Party Data or Product data.
11. Customer may only permit authorized Customer's employees and agents with a need for access to Products and Third Party Data for Customer's internal business purposes to access such data, provided that any agent enters into a written confidentiality agreement in accordance with Section 2 of these Flow-Down Terms. Customer is responsible for compliance with the terms of the Agreement, including these Flow-Down Terms, by Customer's Named Users. Customer shall be liable for breach of the Agreement, including, without limitation, these Flow-Down Terms, by any Named User or any other person or entity which obtains access to any Third Party Data or Product through Customer, to the same extent as if such breach were committed by Customer.

12. Customer acknowledge that a breach of these Flow-Down Terms may result in irreparable harm and monetary damages may be inadequate to compensate for a breach of such provisions. Therefore, in the event of such breach, Company or the Third Party shall be entitled to seek injunctive relief (without the need to post bond) and any and all other remedies available at law or in equity. This Section 12 in no way limits the liability or damages that may be assessed against Customer in the event of a breach of any of these Flow-Down Terms by Customer. In addition, Company may terminate the Agreement and use of the Third Party Data and Products if Customer breach a provision of the Flow-Down Terms.
13. Third Party is an intended third party beneficiary of these Flow-Down Terms for purposes of enabling Third Party to enforce its rights against Customer.
