The selection of a new Chair of the Board of Supervisors (Board), which occurred on January 10, 2023, requires reconsideration of the opportunity and responsibility Board members have to represent the County on more than 40 County and multi-jurisdictional boards, commissions, committees, task forces, advisory groups, steering committees and public authorities (boards). These boards fall into two broad categories as follows:

- b. Discretionary Appointments: Boards where the Board of Supervisors, on recommendation of the Chair, has discretion to appoint any member(s), to represent the County.
